

Federal Criminal Practice: A Second Circuit Handbook

EIGHTEENTH EDITION 2018
Gordon Mehler, John Gleeson,
David C. James, Alicyn Cooley

An indispensable reference for criminal practice in the Second Circuit.

Federal Criminal Practice: A Second Circuit Handbook, now in its 18th edition, is a respected and authoritative resource on virtually every aspect of federal criminal procedure. It is widely used by judges, defense lawyers and prosecutors, and is designed to serve both novice and experienced practitioners. This handy reference is organized alphabetically by topic for ease of use, and includes citations to more than 4,000 cases.

This book surveys more than 50 major topics including appeal, bail, confessions, discovery, electronic surveillance, guilty pleas, indictments, sentencing, and many others, and places them in the context of the Second Circuit case law.

This book is jointly written by a former federal district judge, a seasoned white collar defense lawyer, a chief appellate assistant United States attorney and a trial assistant United States attorney. It contains practical advice, abundant cross references and a comprehensive index of more than 100 pages, including hundreds of alternative terms of art.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Gordon Mehler has been a practicing white collar defense attorney for nearly two decades, with his own firm in New York City. He served as Deputy Assistant Attorney General at the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington and as Chief of Special Prosecutions (Public Integrity) at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. He clerked for the Honorable Robert McWilliams of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit and worked as an associate at Skadden Arps, Slate, Meager and Flom in New York City.

John Gleeson is a partner at Debevoise and Plimpton in New York City and a former U.S. District Judge for the Eastern District of New York. He served as Chief of Organized Crime and Chief of the Criminal and Appeals Divisions at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. He clerked for the Honorable Boyce Martin of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, and worked as an associate at Cravath, Swaine & Moore in New York City. He received the Attorney General's Distinguished Service Award for his role as lead counsel in United States v. John Gotti, et al.

David C. James is Chief of the Appeals Division at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. He is a graduate of Princeton University and Columbia University Law School. He clerked for the Honorable Leonard B. Sand of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, and worked as an associate at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison in New York City.

Alicyn Cooley is Deputy Chief of the Business and Securities Fraud Section at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. She received both her B.A. and J.D. degrees from Yale University. She clerked for the Honorable Barrington D. Parker, Jr. of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and the Honorable John Gleeson of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York, and worked as an associate at Davis, Polk and Wardell, LLP, in New York City.
