Federal Criminal Practice: A Second Circuit Handbook

Gordon Mehler, John Gleeson, David C. James, Alicyn Cooley

AN INDISPENSABLE REFERENCE

Federal Criminal Practice: A Second Circuit Handbook, now in its twentieth edition, is a respected and authoritative resource on virtually every aspect of federal criminal procedure. It is widely used by judges, defense lawyers and prosecutors, and is designed to serve both novice and experienced practitioners. This handy reference work is organized alphabetically by topic for ease of use, and includes citations to more than 4,000 cases.

This book surveys more than 50 major topics including appeals, bail, confessions, discovery, electronic surveillance, guilty pleas, indictments, sentencing and many others, and places them in the context of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the decisions of the United States Supreme Court and the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

Analyze your federal criminal case guided by a former federal district judge, a seasoned white-collar defense lawyer, a chief appellate assistant United States attorney and an academic at a leading law school. It contains practical advice, abundant cross-references and a comprehensive index of more than 100 pages, including hundreds of alternative terms of art.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Gordon Mehler has been a practicing white-collar defense attorney for two decades, with his own firm in New York City. He served as Deputy Assistant Attorney General at the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington and as chief of special prosecutions (public integrity) at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. He clerked for the Honorable Robert McWilliams of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit and worked as an associate at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and Affiliates in New York City. His articles have appeared in The Atlantic[®], The New York Times[®], and The Wall Street Journal[®].

John Gleeson is a partner at Debevoise & Plimpton LLP in New York City and a former U.S. District Judge for the Eastern District of New York. He served as chief of Organized Crime and chief of the Criminal and Appeals Divisions at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. He clerked for the Honorable Boyce Martin of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, and worked as an associate at Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP in New York City. He received the Attorney General's Distinguished Service Award for his role as lead counsel in United States v. John Gotti, et al.

David C. James is chief of the Appeals Division at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. He has worked as a federal prosecutor for over three decades. He is a graduate of Princeton University and Columbia University Law School. He clerked for the Honorable Leonard B. Sand of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, and worked as an associate at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP in New York City.

Alicyn Cooley is executive director of the Program on Corporate Compliance and Enforcement and Adjunct Professor at NYU School of Law. She is also a former deputy chief of the Business and Securities Fraud Section of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. She received both her BA and JD degrees from Yale University. She clerked for the Honorable Barrington D. Parker Jr. of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and the Honorable John Gleeson of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York, and worked as an associate at Davis, Polk & Wardwell LLP in New York City.

PRAISE FROM THE FOREWORD

"Twenty years is nearly a generation. This, of course, makes the twentieth edition of this book all the more remarkable. Its authors have created a work of lasting importance. They have achieved what few legal resources have: long-term relevance and utility."

From the Foreword to the Twentieth Edition
David Patton,
Executive Director,
Federal Defenders of New York

Past editions received similar praise.

"[A]n exemplary volume ... tremendously valuable ... an accurate and easily digestible account of the state of the art in criminal law practice."

From the Foreword to the Tenth Edition
Ruth Bader Ginsburg,
Associate Justice,
Supreme Court of the United States

"The authors of this book are among the best and brightest in our profession. They are each masters of the law. ... Their book is an important and continuing contribution to the strength of our criminal justice system."

From the Foreword to the Fifth Edition
Mary Jo White,
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York

"Experience has more than borne out Judge [Joseph M.] McLaughlin's prediction, made 15 years ago in the forward to the original edition of this book, that the text you now hold would 'surely become the most useful single volume on federal criminal practice within the courts of the Second District.'"

From the Foreword to the Fifteenth Edition
Robert A. Katzmann
Chief Judge,
United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit
